Miles Hawke is the author of 'Kiss Me Good bye in Paris', an exciting tale based on fact and set in the Cold War years of the nineteen-seventies. It concerns a missing NASA heat shield while on loan to the UK for metallurgical testing, stolen to order by an Eastern Bloc country. Michael Tremain, an ex-SAS22 trooper, has dropped out of society to adopt a more relaxed artistically bohemian way of life, but he is unwillingly blackmailed into helping with recovery of the gold-plated heat shield.
